

Name: _____

Date: _____

Period: _____

video: "Slavery & The Making of America"

Part 1

1. In the 1600s, a person who temporarily and voluntarily traded their freedom for passage to America was known as an "indentured _____".
2. How many black people were in the first group of slaves brought to New Amsterdam?
3. The 1640s was a turning point in American slavery. Before 1640, slaves were treated poorly because they were servants. But after 1640, that poor treatment started to be based on a person's _____.
4. By the 1690s, slaves in America stop being classified by the law as "servants", and start to be reclassified as _____.
5. As slavery became more and more profitable, extensive _____ systems were put in place throughout the colonies to protect slave-owners, and to control slaves.
6. After the 1739 Stono slave revolt, many colonies wrote " _____ " to limit the movement of slaves, and prevent them from organizing another uprising.

Discussion Notes    Keep this space empty for post-video discussion notes.

Part 2

7. In 1741, there was an uprising of slaves in what major American colonial city?

8. By the 1750s, about _____ slaves per year were being imported into America from Africa.

9. Name TWO forms of resistance that slaves used in the mid-1700s.

10. Love and _____ were valuable tools that slaves used to cope with the condition of their lives, but those tools could also be used against them by slave-owners who wished to use fear & anguish to control their slaves.

11. By the 1770s, many _____ began to free their slaves, having concluded that slavery was inconsistent with their Christian values.

12. When the Constitution was written, it was decided that slaves would not count as full human beings when counting the population of a state. Slaves, it was decided, would count as _____-fifths of a person.

Discussion Notes    Keep this space empty for post-video discussion notes.